

ACU CENTRE
FOR LITURGY

THLS606 Celebrating Liturgy Today: Exploring the Ritual Enactment of Faith

ACU Faculty of Theology and Philosophy

Disclaimer (March 2024): Information correct at time of printing. The university reserves the right to amend, cancel or otherwise modify the content without notice.

The celebration of the liturgy forms the centre of the whole of Christian life for the Church as well as for each member of the faithful. This unit explores the nature of liturgy as an expression of faith focusing on the Eucharist and how to prepare and evaluate liturgical celebrations in schools and parishes today.

Liturgy is carried out by means of perceptible signs by which the faith is nourished, strengthened, and expressed. As the activity where the community of faith enacts and embodies its faith through ritual symbols, sacred texts, remembered traditions and sacramental actions, the celebration of the liturgy forms the heart of Catholic life and faith expression both universal and local. This unit investigates the celebration of liturgy (particularly the Eucharist) in light of the revised Roman Missal, recent church instructions and key writings on the major liturgical and theological principles undergirding liturgical celebration. It investigates liturgy's definition and forms, liturgical ministries at the service of the worshipping assembly, and employing technology appropriately in liturgy, among other topics. It identifies guidelines for preparing and evaluating effective liturgical celebrations in schools and parishes today.

Lecturer
Professor Clare Johnson is Professor of Liturgical Studies and Sacramental Theology at ACU and Director of the ACU Centre for Liturgy.

Fees:

Fee information can be found here: acu.edu.au/TuitionFees

Details:

8, 9, 10, 11 July 2024, 9am-5pm
Live Online via Zoom

Registration:

Please enrol before 16 June 2024. For cross-institutional and audit enrolments, please email ftp.pg@acu.edu.au noting the unit number (THLS606).