

Senator Disclosure Form

Background: The Senator Disclosure Form collects required information from Senators of ACU in order to comply with statutory and regulatory obligations. The information is collected in accordance with ACU's Privacy Policy and the Privacy Collection Notice: ACU Senators and External Chairs.

Section 1: ACU has ongoing obligations with the Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission (ACNC), which includes keeping charity records and notifying the ACNC of any change to responsible persons.

For further information, please click here.

SECTION 1	PERSONAL INFORMATION - RESPONSIBLE PERSON
Name:
Date of Birth:
Residential Address:

Section 2: ACU has particular legal obligations with regards to managing conflicts of interest and related party transactions. Refer to the Senator Declaration of Interest Policy and Register

SECTION 2	STANDING NOTICE OF ANY ACTUAL, POTENTIAL OR PERCEIVED CONFLICTS OF INTEREST
Name of company	Role / Relationship to company	Appointment date	Steps you will take to manage the actual, potential or perceived conflicts	Steps you think ACU should take to manage the actual, potential or perceived conflicts	Standing declaration (Y or N)	Update to existing declaration?

SECTION 3	UNDERTAKING
In signing the below, I undertake that the information I have provided is true and correct. Should my details change, I will notify Governance or the Secretary of Corporation of any changes to my information within 7 days of the effective date of the change.
Name:
Signature:
Date:	