Islam: History, Theology and Culture

Presenter

Rev Dr Patrick J McInerney

Commencing 27 February, Semester 1 2012
RELI3000

Islam: History, Theology and Culture examines the theological and socio-political history of Islam and focuses in particular upon the emergence of the Qur’an, Hadith and basic teachings of Islam; the problems arising from Islam’s rapid geo-political expansion during the and 7th and 8th centuries, its political institutions, internal differentiation and its synergistic encounter with Greek philosophy and science; the development of Sharia law and its system of jurisprudence; and the rich diversity of its theological traditions and cultural expressions.

Rev Dr Patrick J McInerney is a Columban Missionary Priest; assigned to Pakistan for over twenty years. He is the Coordinator of the Columban Mission Institute’s Centre for Christian-Muslim Relations & Centre for Mission Studies, a Board Member of ACU’s Australia-Pacific Centre for Interreligious Dialogue and a member of the ACBC’s Australian Catholic Council for Ecumenism and Inter-religious Relations.
