11.8 No person who is enrolled for a Doctoral degree by research in this University or any other institution shall serve as a Principal Supervisor of a Doctoral candidate in the same research area unless approved by the URRTMC.

11.9 A candidate may request the URRTMC to review supervision arrangements and to appoint a new supervisor, if necessary. The candidate shall specify in writing the reason for the request, and the URRTMC shall consult all parties concerned before making a decision on the basis of the evidence available to it.

12. OBTAINING ETHICAL CLEARANCE FOR RESEARCH

15.3 The URRTMC, in consultation with the Dean and the Principal Supervisor, may require a candidate at any time to present for an oral or written examination in the branch of knowledge appropriate to the subject of the thesis or of any required course of study being undertaken.

15.4 Work-in-Progress Seminars

15.4.1 After approval of the thesis proposal by the URRTMC, Doctoral candidates will be expected to present within the School/Faculty annual Doctoral level work-in-progress seminars arranged by the Principal Supervisor.

15.4.2 All Doctoral candidates shall participate actively in research seminars and shall present an update on their research at these seminars.
15.4.3 A final seminar is to be scheduled to occur at the stage when the candidate will be able to define and defend the major results and conclusions emerging from the research. This seminar will usually take place when the candidate is about to provide the required three months advance Notice of Intention to submit a thesis for examination.

15.5 Academic Progress

15.5.1 A candidate enrolled in the thesis component of the degree programme shall submit an Academic Progress Report to the URRTMC at least annually on a form provided to the candidate. The candidate shall discuss it with the Principal Supervisor, who shall forward it to the Head of School. The Head of School will refer to the Dean for comment, any instances where academic progress is unsatisfactory.

15.5.2 All candidates working on the thesis component in the early stages of their candidature shall normally meet with their Principal Supervisor once a fortnight. Candidates should submit written work regularly. There may be a stage in the research where supervisory meetings may be held less frequently; such meetings when held should be of longer duration. Candidates in the later stage in their candidature shall meet with their Principal Supervisor at least once a month, unless otherwise directed by the URRTMC. In the final writing-up stages of the research it may be necessary for supervisory meetings to be held in person once a fortnight.

15.5.3 All candidates enrolled in a thesis are required to submit to their supervisors at least one completed chapter or substantial report on the progress of the thesis by the end of each year of candidature, bearing in mind the due date for submitting the thesis for examination.

15.5.4 Whenever the Principal Supervisor or the Dean considers that a candidate is not making satisfactory progress or is not complying with the requirements of these Regulations, the URRTMC may, after seeking clarification (if necessary) from the Principal Supervisor and the Dean, require the candidate to show cause why candidature should not be terminated on the grounds of unsatisfactory progress.

15.5.5 If the URRTMC, after giving the candidate an opportunity to be heard and after considering all the evidence before it, believes that the candidate has failed to make satisfactory progress it may:

(a) terminate the candidate's enrolment for the degree; or

(b) specify in writing conditions under which the candidate's enrolment for the degree may continue on a probationary basis.

15.5.6 If, within fourteen (14) days of the date of a letter informing the candidate of the URRTMC decision, a candidate objects in writing to the URRTMC to the conditions specified in accordance with Regulation 15.5.5 (b) the URRTMC shall review them and may:

(a) amend the conditions under which the candidate is allowed to remain enrolled for the degree; or

(b) terminate the candidate's enrolment for the degree.

15.5.7 The URRTMC shall report any termination of candidature to the Academic Board.

16. SUBMISSION OF THESIS FOR EXAMINATION

16.1 On completing the course of advanced study and research, a candidate shall submit a written thesis based on work carried out during candidature.

The thesis must demonstrate:

(a) the ability of the candidate to conduct a research programme;

(b) a command of knowledge and skills pertinent to the area of investigation; and

(c) a critical appreciation and understanding of the relationship of the candidate’s work to the work of others within the subject area.

In addition, a Doctoral thesis shall demonstrate that the candidate:

(a) has made a substantial contribution to knowledge; and

(b) appreciates and understands the relationship of the candidate’s own investigations to a wider field of learning.

16.2 A thesis shall comply with the guidelines contained in the Policy on the Preparation and Presentation of a Thesis for Examination.

16.3 Work published before the commencement of candidature and not submitted for another degree or diploma may not be included towards fulfilling the requirements for the degree except with the special permission of the URRTMC. Such work is considered to be a starting point for postgraduate research and would normally need to be rewritten considerably, re-analysed or extended to form a legitimate part of a thesis. Candidates may include in the thesis a reference to, or summary of, the work for information, provided appropriate references are included in the introduction to the thesis.

16.4 A candidate may not present as the thesis any work for which another degree or diploma has been awarded by this University or any other academic institution, but such a candidate shall not be precluded from incorporating extracts from such work in the thesis, provided that the source of each extract is stated explicitly and that the sum of any such extracts does not in the judgment of the URRTMC constitute a substantial proportion of the thesis.

16.5 Unless the URRTMC determines otherwise, the thesis and any other written work submitted for the Master's or Doctoral degree shall be written in the English language.

16.6 The thesis may incorporate or include as an appendix any publications resulting from the work completed during candidature whether or not the candidate is the sole author or one of the joint authors.

16.7 Where the thesis draws on any work for which the candidate has been jointly responsible, evidence satisfactory to the URRTMC identifying the section of the work for which the candidate was responsible shall be provided by the candidate to the URRTMC. Those parts of the thesis which derive from such work shall be identified as such in the thesis by the candidate.

16.8 A candidate may submit with the thesis other kinds of relevant additional material (such as films, tape recordings, models, etc.) for purposes of illustration. Such material shall be accompanied by evidence of the extent to which the candidate has been responsible for its preparation. After consideration of the recommendation of the Principal Supervisor, the URRTMC shall decide whether such material shall be deemed to constitute part of the thesis for the purpose of examination.

17. EXAMINATIONS

17.1 Assessment of Taught Units

17.1.1 Unless otherwise determined by the URRTMC, the examination of material to satisfy the requirements of taught units at Master's or Professional Doctoral degree level shall comply with the Academic Regulations.
