

AUSTRALIAN LONERGAN WORKSHOP

April 16th – 17th, 2005

Living Authentically in Today's Troubled World

Papers and Presenters

The Science of Thinking ... Tom Daly, SJ

Can Functional Specialisation Contribute to a Better Housing Policy in Australia?... Sean McNelis

Self transcendence or Self-absorption? ... Anthony Kelly, CSSR

Living Attuned to God ... Meredith Secomb

Towards Discovery of Foundations in Management... John Little

The Polymorphism of Human Consciousness – an Overview of Lonergan's Account in Insight... Peter Madden

Friendly Authenticity in a Fractured World... Kathleen Williams, RSM

Stab-at Matter: Implementing Metaphysics under the Cross: Functional Specialisation... Tom Halloran

Faith in Insight and Method... Peter Beer, SJ

Group Dynamics

Structured Discussion groups morning and afternoon
Unstructured Conversations during tea and lunch

Venue:

Australian Catholic University

Christ Theatre, cnr Young and Graham Sts

Just up from main entrance of university: 115 Victoria Parade Fitzroy

Program

Saturday 16th April

8.00 Mass – followed by light breakfast
8.30 Registration
9.00 Welcome and introduction
9.15 Tom Daly, SJ
10.10 Morning tea
10.30 Sean McNelis
11.30 Anthony Kelly, CSSR
12.30 Lunch
1.30 Group discussions
3.00 Afternoon tea
3.30 Meredith Secomb
4.30 John Little
5.30 – 7.30 Refreshments and discussion

Costs

Registration: $70 ($35 concession); one day $40 ($20 concession)
Lunch and refreshments included.

Further Information and Pre-registration

John Little, Chair of the Lonergan Workshop Committee
CREDO at ACU National 115 Victoria Parade, Fitzroy 3065
(03) 9953 3270 or (mobile) 0412 078 543
email j.little@patrick.acu.edu.au

Sunday 17th April

9.15 Mass followed by light breakfast
9.45 Registration
10.00 Peter Madden
11.00 Morning tea
11.20 Kathleen Williams, RSM
12.30 Lunch
1.30 Tom Halloran
2.15 Peter Beer, SJ
3.00 Group discussions
3.30 Afternoon tea
3.45 Reflections and Evaluation
4.30 – 6.00 Refreshments and farewell