Nursing Simulation Laboratory Session

Week 1
Jane Walton

Person centered framework - How to recognise what it is we need to know, do & feel? Critical Thinking

Contextualise: Scenario - Jane Walton

Handover: Jane Walton is a 76 year old hospitalised with a right CVA. She has a history of hypertension. Prior to her hospitalisation Mrs Walton was living independently with her daughter. Currently Mrs Walton has dysphagia, dysarthria, left hemiparesis, incontinence, sacral pressure area.

Current medications include:
- Metaclopramide 10mg TDS
- Nyastatin mouthwash 1ml QID
- Frusemide 40 mg Mane
- KCL 600mg Mane
- metoprolol 40mg BD
- Cytamen injection 100mcg weekly

Establishing the environment:

What competencies do I need to have?
- Professional practice
- Critical thinking and analysis
- Provision and coordination of care
- Collaborative and therapeutic practice

Patient intervention:

Activities:
(i) Reinsert a nasogastric tube
(ii) Undertake an abdominal assessment
(iii) Perform an oral assessment and mouthcare
(iv) Documentation

Debriefing:

Reflect on performance:
(i) Required knowledge
(ii) Skill acquisition
(iii) Behaviour & Attitudes

Tutorial

Philosophy of palliative care
Examine some of the history and background to the practice of palliative care.

Examine some of the oncology behind the provision of palliative care.

Workshop

Self directed
Undertake a 4 hour snapshot clinical visit and complete the content of the workbook and the portfolio as part of the self-directed learning time.

Skill development:

Practice sessions

Reflect on group discussion.