GLOBALISATION:
WAR, RELIGION AND DIALOGUE

International Keynote Address:
Dr Kamran Mofid
Founder, Globalisation for the Common Good Initiative

Academic Response: Dr Mary Hawkins
Senior Lecturer, UWS,
Author of “Global Structures, Local Cultures”

Local Response: Mehmet Ozalp
Co-Founder, Affinity Intercultural Foundation
Author of “101 Questions You Asked About Islam” and “Islam in the Modern World”

TIME / DATE: 7:00pm, Friday 14th March, 2008
University of Western Sydney
Bankstown Campus, Lecture Theatre 4, Building 23, Bullecourt Ave Milperra
$5 per person on entry

Dr Kamran Mofid is the founder of Globalisation for the Common Good Initiative and Editor, Journal of Globalisation for the Common Good. He has been a frequent speaker at major international conferences, radio and television. In his highly interdisciplinary work, Dr. Mofid has developed short courses on economics of the common good, altruism & service, Islam and Christianity in dialogue, spiritual economics and non-violent conflict resolution and an inter-faith perspective on globalisation. He co-authored the book “Promoting the Common Good: Bringing Economics and Theology Together: A Theologian and an Economist in Dialogue”.

Parking available on campus. On how to get to venue visit:
http://www.uws.edu.au/about/locations/bankstown/gettingtobankstown

Registrations are at www.affinity.org.au
Or email us at registrations@affinity.org.au
Or call (02) 9702 0789, or turn up at the venue.

Organised by

Affinity Intercultural Foundation
ACU National
National Centre of Excellence for Islamic Studies
(University of Western Sydney in partnership with Griffith University and the University of Melbourne)