Location

Seoul, South Korea

Campus Description

Divided according to academic fields, the CUK's three campuses (Songsin, Songsim and Songeui) each maintain their individual strengths and generate dynamic energy when combined. Each campus strives to produce global leaders for the 21st century.

Songsin Campus

The Songsin Campus is located in Hyehwa-dong, in an older part of Seoul north of the Han River known as a cultural center that attracts many young people. The ancient and the modern are juxtaposed here on beautiful, peaceful grounds adjacent to the old city walls of Korea's capital. This is the ideal place for religious study and contemplation.

Songsim Campus

The Songsim Campus is located in Bucheon, a cultural center situated between Korea's capital city of Seoul and the country's international gateway at Incheon. The campus is easily reachable from Seoul, about 30 minutes from downtown. Here over 6,000 students pursue studies in the humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, science and engineering, and the arts.

Songeui Campus

The Songeui Campus is located in Banpo-dong, near one of Seoul's centers of education, law, and medicine. This campus is home to the Catholic University's College of Medicine and College of Nursing and the school's largest affiliated hospital, Kangnam St. Mary's, is nearby.

Location

Daegu, South Korea

Campus Description

CU is the largest Catholic University in Korea. It has about 17,000 students. CU is founded on the principles of Christianity and defines itself and all its programs through this Christ-centered spirit. Now, it moves into the 21st century with that same spirit and a renewed sense of purpose and direction.

CU plans to establish education centers abroad to fulfill its goals on globalization. Throughout the long history of CU, the university has provided students with a dedicated, energetic faculty and quality programs. The highest priority for the CU faculty is to continually improve the teaching and learning process. The faculty members are active in academic and scientific research and publication, community service and campus life.

While our name represents the tenants of Catholicism, we welcome people of all cultures and creeds to CU. with a promise to serve, with best efforts, those who desire to seek educational truth with sincerity.
