CERTIFICATE IN THEOLOGY

What will I learn?
This is a non-award, UniAccess-Australia program. Students have the opportunity to pursue Theology at an introductory level. After completing this course, a student may choose to apply for a place in the Bachelor of Theology.

Where can I enrol?
Ballarat (part-time only), Brisbane, Canberra, Melbourne, Strathfield

How long will it take?
0.5 years full-time (or equivalent part-time)

What does the course look like?
The Certificate of Theology consists of 40 credit points (cp) of study drawn from the following areas:

- Biblical Studies draws on a range of scholarly approaches to the Bible
- Christian Thought examines Christian thought and doctrine in a systematic context
- Christian Practice explores the living out of Christian faith in community
- Philosophy focuses on questions of meaning and value, and is an age-old dialogue partner for Christian thought
- Study of Religions includes units in Judaism and Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism, Indigenous Spiritualities, Ethics and Peace Studies, and Interfaith Dialogue

What are my options for further study?
The 40 credit points from the Certificate in Theology may qualify an applicant for advanced standing in the Diploma of Theology or the Bachelor of Theology.

DIPLOMA IN THEOLOGY

What will I learn?
In this course students have the opportunity to pursue an introductory program of studies in scripture, theology and philosophy. After completing this course, a student may choose to apply for a place in the Bachelor of Theology.

Where can I enrol?
Ballarat (part-time only), Brisbane, Canberra, Melbourne, Strathfield

How long will it take?
1 year full-time (or equivalent part-time)

What does the course look like?
The Diploma of Theology consists of 80 credit points (cp) of study drawn from the following areas:

- Biblical Studies draws on a range of scholarly approaches to the Bible
- Christian Thought examines Christian thought and doctrine in a systematic context
- Christian Practice explores the living out of Christian faith in community
- Philosophy focuses on questions of meaning and value, and is an age-old dialogue partner for Christian thought
- Study of Religions includes units in Judaism and Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism, Indigenous Spiritualities, Ethics and Peace Studies, and Interfaith Dialogue

What are my career options?
Graduates of the Diploma can pursue a range of careers in areas such as social inclusion, work in church agencies and some ministries.

What are my options for further study?
A range of further studies is potentially open to graduates, such as the Bachelor of Theology.

Details are available at http://www.acu.edu.au/courses/theology_and_philosophy/