Accommodation Information

Students seeking accommodation usually look for:

- Full board with a family – $150 - $230 per week
- Room in a family home with use of kitchen and other facilities – $120 - $175 per week
- Shared flat/house with students or others - $90 - $200 per week

Bond will be equivalent of your share of four (4) weeks’ rent. Sharing food and other household expenses usually means an extra $60 - $100 per week.

Information on some boarding and shared accommodation is available in a register that can be accessed via the ACU National webpage on the inet. http://inet.acu.edu.au/StudentServices/3755

On campus, students can access accommodation information on noticeboards located within Student Services.

For Sydney’s largest database of accommodation go to www.domain.com.au. This site has a comprehensive range of private accommodation in all areas of Sydney. Simply follow the prompts to key in your specific requirements such as ‘share’ or ‘rent’, suburb (North Sydney and surrounds is found in the ‘North Shore-Lower’ region), rent price, type of accommodation (house, unit etc) and any keywords (for example “student” will connect you with others looking for student housemates).
