The National School of Psychology is proud to offer this study award of $1000 to assist a deserving and promising third-year student of psychological science to deepen and enrich their time at ACU National by undertaking further study.

Selection Criteria:

1. Academic achievement, demonstrated by:
   - A minimum of credit average across all first and second year units of the pass degree.
   - A minimum distinction level in at least three first and second year psychology units.

2. Applicants to submit a 200-250 word statement covering their contribution and leadership in wider community service or in the university community, through activities to create a more just, merciful and sustainable world.

3. Applicants to also provide a signed referee report supporting the applicant’s community service and leadership activities.

Application Forms to be obtained from and returned to:

Melbourne applicants:
Associate Professor Sabine Hammond
Head of School School of Psychology

Brisbane applicants:
Dr Anne Tolan
Assistant Head of School School of Psychology

Or Email: psychology@acu.edu.au

The Peter W. Sheehan Study Award, established in 2008 by the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, commemorates Professor Peter Sheehan AO, Vice-Chancellor of ACU National from 1998 to 2008, and former President of the Australian Psychological Society, the International Congress of Psychology, and the Academy of the Social Sciences in Australia. He was made an officer in the General Division of the Order of Australia in 1995 and received the Centenary Medal in 2003 for his contributions to Australian society.

Applications Closing Date: Friday, 15th August 2008