

ASSOCIATED BODIES

ACUcom

The University offers a range of continuing education courses and educational services to the wider community through ACUcom which has offices at the following campuses Brisbane, North Sydney and Melbourne. Information should be sought from those offices.

ACUcom also delivers courses for overseas students in ELICOS (English language) and Diplomas.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS – Diploma Courses

ACUcom offer programs which may enable students to progress to degree studies through the following courses:

Diploma in Business
Diploma in Business Information Systems
Diploma in Educational Studies
Diploma in Environmental Science
Diploma in Liberal Studies
Diploma in Social Science
Diploma in Tertiary Preparation (Nursing)
Diploma in Visual Arts and Design

Applications from international students are assessed on the basis of the applicant's academic qualifications and proficiency in English.

Diploma entry is based on:

- the satisfactory completion of the equivalent of twelve years of schooling at a comparable entry level to that applying to local Australian students. A pass rate of 50% is the minimum academic requirement;
- proficiency in English – normally an academic International English Language Testing System (IELTS) overall result of 5.5 (with a minimum of 5.0 in all bands) or Testing of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) score of 525 (190 computer based score) is the minimum entry requirement to diploma courses.

For more information, please contact:

International Student Services

Level 6, 23 Berry Street
North Sydney NSW 2060 Australia

Postal Address

PO Box 1009
North Sydney NSW 2059

Telephone: (+61 2) 9955 7122

Fax: (+61 2) 9955 7153

E-mail: admin@acuiss.com

For details see the following websites:

ACUcom: www.acu.edu.au/course_areas/Continuing_Education_ACUcom/index.cfm

International: www.acu.edu.au/course_areas/International_Students/index.cfm