‘Hearts in Harmony’ Community Choir
Singing for Fun

Proudly supported by Australian Catholic University

12 - 1PM EVERY THURSDAY
commencing 3rd March 2011

When & where
- Once a week on Thursdays at midday, for an hour during semester 1
- Commencing Thursday 3rd March
- At the meeting room, 125 Napier St, Atherton Gardens Estate, Fitzroy (near cnr Gertrude Street)

What do we do?
- Begin with vocal warm ups including relaxation, breathing and vocal exercises.
- Explore various forms of music (e.g. African chants, Indigenous songs, gospel, folk, jazz, musicals, and possibly music from each others cultures).
- Incorporate movement, actions, harmonies, instrumental accompaniment, signing, improvisation and even a few solos for those who wish.
- Work towards a number of performances during the year including ACU graduation ceremony, community music days and other special occasions

The benefits of such a group include:
- Social interaction
- Building self esteem and confidence
- Self expression and creativity
- Enhancement of health and well being

Who can join?
Anyone who enjoys singing, is happy to make a commitment and has a sense of FUN!

Group Leader
Susie Davies – Splitter (Music & Movement Education Lecturer) – ACU Melbourne
Susie has a performing background having played keyboards and sung in jazz and function bands as well as lots of solo work. She has also led school and adult choirs for many years. She has a passion for singing and believes it’s a great source of expression for everyone.
