Perilous Journeys
The Migration of Peoples Today
[Issues in Missiology MS 594]

13 - 14 August 2011
10 - 11 September 2011
15 - 16 October 2011

Offered as an intensive to make it available to busy people like you!!

WHY STUDY THIS COURSE?
Migration is more than an economic question - it is a fundamental moral challenge of our age. While much policy debate on human mobility is framed by economic self-interest and international law, Catholic Social Teaching offers a more wholistic ethical framework for understanding the phenomenon and responding honestly. Understanding this tradition will help Christians and others of good will to reframe the debate.

WHO IS IT FOR?
Students undertaking the following Awards:
- Bachelor of Theology (final year), Graduate Certificate in Arts, Graduate Diploma of Arts, Master of Arts and Master of Divinity.
- Priests, pastoral workers, teachers, catechists, those working with migrants, refugees and asylum seekers, and concerned citizens can take the course as a non-award or audit student out of personal interest or for professional development.

WHAT IS INCLUDED?
- Pre- A brief history of migration in the modern period
- The development of international legal frameworks concerning human mobility, and their limitations
- The development of Catholic Social Teaching concerning human mobility
- Church responses to people on the move
- Towards a theology of migration
- Contemporary challenges in responding across the migration spectrum
- Morality and migration in a pluralist world

WHO IS THE LECTURER?
Sandie Cornish B Ec (Notle), Lic soc sci (PUG), M Pub Pol (UNE) is a specialist in Catholic Social Teaching with more than twenty years experience in social justice ministry at diocesan and national levels in Australia and in the Asia-Pacific region. She has worked in the International Office of the Jesuit Refugee Service and is currently a member of the Jesuit Conference Asia Pacific Migration Task Force.

Registration closes Friday 1st July 2011

For further information and registration contact:
The Registry
Catholic Institute of Sydney
Telephone: (02) 9752 9500
Email: cisinfo@cis.catholic.edu.au
Web: www.cis.catholic.edu.au

For information on the course contact:
Sandie Cornish
Mobile: 0468 865 766
E-Mail: Sandie.Cornish@gmail.com