Acknowledgement of Country

We recognise Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples' deep spiritual connection to Country and thank them for their continued custodianship. We acknowledge the importance of Indigenous knowledge and pay respect to the Traditional Custodians of the unceded lands and waterways where we work, learn and live.

Welcome to ACU

As a former international student, I was drawn to Australia's vibrant culture and natural beauty. The chance to study abroad was an enriching experience; one I wholeheartedly encourage others to undertake.

As one of the world's top 100 young universities and ranked first in Australia for research quality, Australian Catholic University (ACU) is a university like no other.

The results speak for themselves: we have been awarded five stars in learner engagement and skills development. Our culture is unique — dynamic and inclusive with countless opportunities for students to personalise their learning. With a choice of four faculties across seven campuses in Australia and one in Rome, your study will lead to a world-class qualification that will connect you with an extensive network and your profession of choice.

Our commitment to international student success is reflected in our students' strong graduate outcomes. We rank among Australia's top four universities for median full-time annual salary for international undergraduates and among the top three for international postgraduates.

ACU has a lot to offer, and as an international student, you do too. Through your culture, individual strengths, skills, aspirations and determination to succeed, you will bring immeasurable value to the university community and Australia. I look forward to seeing you on campus.

TRAINING

At ACU, we produce graduates with world-class expertise and humanitarian hearts.

In the Faculty of Education and Arts, our degrees expand far beyond the classroom. When you study with us, you'll combine evidence-informed theoretical learning with hands-on practice. You'll be taught by leading practitioners and engage with your peers, the community and the future industries in which you'll launch your career. And you'll do it at a university recognised for excellence: ACU is ranked in the world's top 50 universities for education.¹

THREE REASONS TO STUDY EDUCATION AND ARTS AT ACU

Learn by doing

As an education student, find yourself at the front of the classroom from early in your degree. Our hands-on teacher training placements will give you real-world experience in public, private and Catholic schools, early childhood centres and community organisations.

Build job readiness

As an arts student, access community engagement placements, social enterprise projects and volunteering opportunities that will help you gain the practical experience and professional skills that all employers are looking for.

Explore the world

Your degree offers opportunities to gain a global outlook through experiences around the world. For education students, this includes rural, remote, and international teaching placements. Arts students can participate in exchange programs and study tours.

We're a leader in teacher training in Australia, preparing more qualified teachers than any other university.

Theology and philosophy are ancient disciplines, but at ACU, they've been reimagined for a contemporary and ever-evolving world.

When you study with us, you can align your learning with your life and career — as an undergraduate student, you'll build the foundations of theological and philosophical thought and traditions. As a postgraduate student, you'll deepen your existing learning with flexible degrees designed in partnership with industry, church and community.

THREE REASONS TO STUDY THEOLOGY AND PHILOSOPHY AT ACU

Among the world's best

As a Catholic University, we're proud to be a leader in theology education. ACU is ranked 1st in Australia for theology, divinity and religious studies.¹

Skills for every career

A philosophy degree is more than just the study of knowledge and existence. You'll also gain critical skills — abstract thinking, problem solving and logic — that offer value in every field.

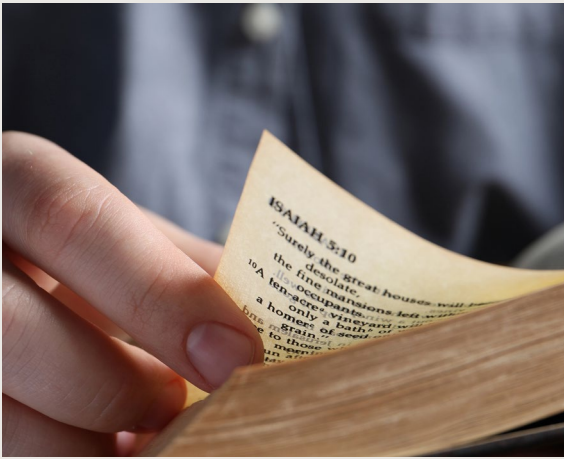

Search for meaning

Our philosophy and theology degrees are an opportunity to explore life's big questions. From the study of ancient wisdom to the central tenets of the Catholic faith, our courses will broaden your intellectual and spiritual expertise.

Flexible study options

With flexible study options, you can tailor your learning experience by incorporating subjects from Languages, Humanities, and the Arts, broadening your perspective and enhancing your academic journey.
