Wednesday 24 February 2021 at 12:00-1:30am (London)

Tuesday 23 February at 7:00pm-8:30pm (New York, USA)

An Yountae: Dr. An is Assistant Professor of Religious Studies at California State University, Northridge. He specializes in religions of the Americas with a particular focus in Latin American intellectual history, Africana philosophy, and decolonial thought. He is the author of The Decolonial Abyss: Mysticism and Cosmopolitics from the Ruins (Fordham, 2016), and co-editor (with Eleanor Craig) of Beyond Man: Race, Coloniality and Philosophy of Religion (Duke, forthcoming, 2021). His most recent piece, “A Decolonial Theory of Religion: Race, Coloniality, and Secularity in the Americas,” appeared in the December 2020 issue of the Journal of the American Academy of Religion (JAAR).

Respondent: Dr Darren Sarisky is a Senior Research Fellow at the Institute for Religion and Critical Inquiry. His primary area of research is theological interpretation of Scripture. He is the author of Reading the Bible Theologically (Cambridge, 2019) and editor of Theologies of Retrieval: An Exploration and Appraisal (T. & T. Clark, 2017). At present, he is working on a collaborative project on theological genealogies of modernity, and he is beginning a new monograph on the doctrine of the church.
