

Recent Changes to the Bachelor of Social and Environmental Sustainability - Bachelor of Global Studies in 2027

What's changed in 2027?

Students undertaking units from 2027 onwards, including students who commenced in 2026, will follow an updated course map with the following changes:

- POLS104 Introduction to International Relations has been replaced by POLS106 or POLS108 from 2027. POLS108 is on offer from 2027, POLS106 is first offered in 2028.
- HIST115 Global History: Six Degrees of Separation has been replaced by HIST120 Global History: The Making of the Modern World.
- GEOG110 Exploring Natural Environments and GEOG111 Exploring Human Environments have been moved to align with their approved semester offerings.
- HUMA330 Community Engagement: Placement is no longer offered from 2027 and has been replaced by HUMA333 Social Impact in Action.

These changes ensure the course map reflects current unit offerings and the latest Global Studies curriculum.
