Notes: This document must be used in conjunction with the live Course Enrolment Guide in the ACU Handbook. [1] NSW students who have commenced in 2023 or later without Band four HSC result for maths must select EDMA163 instead or EDES104. Units with a * may be offered outside semester one or two (e.g. summer, winter, or professional terms), please check the live Course Enrolment Guide for details.

Instructions: 1. Please highlight the units you have successfully completed in green and any units you are currently enrolled in in pink. You are welcome to add the year and semester of study if you wish. 2. Look at the specialisations document on the following page and add the correct specialisation units to slots A-G and the two boxes with italicised units. 3. Select elective units from other specialisations or from the schedule of primary extension units in the Handbook to complete slots A-G. If you are unsure which electives to take, leave those boxes blank and discuss with your course coordinator.
