How to use the recredential roadmap

- 1 Click on your profession. You will see a step by step process of how to gain accreditation to work in Australia.
- 2 Click on the 'Resources' tab, top right, for information on how to have your qualification recognised in Australia.
- 3 Click on the 'English' tab, top right, for additional information on English Language test providers.

There's a lot of different sources that you might explore to have your qualifications recognised in Australia. We've collated them here for you, to make the process of accreditation easier.

Simplifying access to this information is a key priority of the Sydney Greater West CALD and Migrant Working Group, the collaborative group of organisations behind the roadmap.

Launched in early 2026, the roadmap was researched by Dr Haydn Aarons, from ACU's Faculty of Education and Arts, through funding received from Workforce Australia's Local Jobs Program Sydney Greater West.
