Become an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion

This comprehensive multimedia training program will enable new and experienced ministers to develop the skills and confidence needed for this important liturgical ministry.

The 5-week online program provides rich and engaging content in a supportive environment. The program is led by an experienced liturgy instructor and features many opportunities for questions and interaction with others.

DEVELOP ESSENTIAL SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE

The skills and knowledge that are essential for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are explored through videos, readings, quizzes, audio, images, and reflection-based activities. Zoom classes and practical session ensure that participants become confident and effective ministers. The program promotes a broader understanding of liturgical ministry and the liturgy of the Church.

WORK WITH YOUR LOCAL COMMUNITY

Participants from parishes, schools and Church organisations are initially nominated by their pastor as the first step in registration. Engagement with the local community is a feature of the program.
