

THLS601 Eucharist

Postgraduate intensive 6 – 9 July

The Eucharist is the chief Christian ritual, celebrated in response to Christ's command to: "Do this in remembrance of me".

THLS601 explores the biblical and anthropological roots of the Eucharist and traces the development of its major theological themes of: participation in the Paschal Mystery, sacrifice, presence, communion, blessing, and devotion, and the historical evolution of the Eucharist across a range of Christian traditions and time-periods. Centred on the Eucharist in the Roman Catholic tradition, this unit pays close attention to key ecclesiastical legislation regarding its celebration, articulating a theology of the rite drawn from the liturgy itself. THLS601 will navigate the complex historical evolution, liturgical diversity, and theological richness of the sacrament of the Eucharist, exploring why its proper ritual celebration today is central to the identity and mission of the Catholic Church.

This unit is offered at postgraduate level for students enrolled in masters or graduate certificate/diploma programs in theology and religious education at ACU. Crossinstitutional and auditing (attendance, no assessment) enrolments are welcome.
