PREAMBLE

Australian Catholic University Limited (Corporation) is a Company Limited by Guarantee formed to conduct the University.

The University is a Catholic, public, national and international University operating as a body politic and corporate and recognised by legislation of the Parliaments of the States of New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland. The University, as a Catholic University, operates under the norms of Ex Corde Ecclesiae, the Apostolic Constitution of the Supreme Pontiff John Paul II on Catholic Universities.

The University was founded as a University in 1991, but derives a rich historical tradition dating back to 1867 through a continuous line of Catholic Teachers Colleges and Nurse Training facilities, ultimately represented by the institutions that combined to bring it into existence: The Catholic College of Education Sydney (New South Wales); the Institute of Catholic Education (Victoria); the McAuley College of Queensland; and the Signadou Dominican College of Education (Australian Capital Territory).

The University draws deeply upon the work and spiritual traditions of those religious Orders who founded its predecessor Colleges, including the Christian Brothers; the Dominican Sisters; the De La Salle Brothers; the Good Samaritan Sisters; the Marist Brothers; the Sisters of Mercy, Ballarat; the Sisters of Mercy, Brisbane; and the Sisters of St. Joseph.

- (c) each Senator.

No other person is entitled to receive a notice of general meeting.

Notice of a general meeting must be given in accordance with the Act. Any general meeting may be called on short notice in accordance with the Act and all provisions of this Constitution are modified accordingly.

9.6 Proxy Voting by Members

- (a) A Member may appoint a proxy to attend and vote at any meeting at which the Member is entitled to attend and vote. Any person may be appointed as a proxy. To be valid, a proxy appointment must be in writing, signed by the Member and delivered to the Registered Office or such other place specified in the notice convening the meeting, at least 48 hours before the scheduled commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or, in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll. A proxy appointment may be delivered by electronic means.
- (b) A proxy appointment confers authority on the proxy to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote as the proxy thinks fit on the election of the Chair of the meeting, an adjournment of the meeting and similar procedural matters. An instrument of proxy does not confer authority on the proxy to vote on any resolution not listed for consideration in the notice calling the meeting. Unless a Member instructs the proxy to vote in favour of or against a proposed resolution, the proxy shall not be entitled to vote on the resolution. A Member may instruct the proxy to abstain from voting on any resolution.

The Senators may notify the Members of a cancellation or postponement of a meeting by such means as they see fit. No business may be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum of Members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, a quorum is constituted by a majority of the Members in office from time to time, provided that the Members present in person or by proxy include at least two Members holding office pursuant to clauses 7.1(a), (b), (c), (d), (e) or (f).

10.5 Chair of meeting

The President of Corporation is entitled to take the chair at each meeting. If the President of Corporation is not present at any general meeting within 30 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is not willing to take the chair, the Members present must elect a person who is a Member to be Chair of the meeting.

No business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. No notice need be given of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. However, if any meeting is adjourned for 30 business days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given.

10.8 Circular resolution of Members

If a majority of Members (or, in the case of a Special Resolution, 75% of the Members) have signed a document containing a statement that they are in favour of a resolution of the Members in terms set out in the document, a resolution in those terms is treated as having been passed at a meeting of the Members held on the day on which the document was signed. If the Members sign the documents on different days, then a resolution is treated as having been passed on the day on which the document was last signed by a Member thereby constituting a majority in number (or 75% in the case of a Special Resolution) of the Members. A resolution is not treated as passed on that day if the document, by its terms, is said to take effect from an earlier date.

10.9 Signing of circular resolution

For the purposes of the preceding clause:

- (a) each Member, other than one not entitled to vote on the resolution, must sign the document including each Member of a joint membership, where applicable;

10.10 Deemed minute

The document or documents referred to in the two preceding clauses are treated as constituting a minute of that meeting and must be entered in books kept for that purpose.

11. VOTING AT MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

If a poll is duly demanded (and the demand not withdrawn) it must be taken in such manner and at such time (either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise) as the Chair of the meeting directs. The result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. A poll demanded on the election of a Chair or on any question of adjournment must be taken at the meeting and without an adjournment. The demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

If a majority of Senators have signed a document containing a statement that they are in favour of a resolution of the Senators in terms set out in the document, a resolution in those terms is treated as having been passed at a meeting of the Senators held on the day on which the document was signed. If the Senators sign the documents on different days, then a resolution is treated as having been passed on the day on which the document was last signed by a Senator thereby constituting a majority in number of the Senators. They may at any time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers. No delegation will prevent the exercise of any power by the Senate.

15.7 Validity of acts

Despite anything contained in this Constitution, if it is found that some formality required by this Constitution to be done has been inadvertently omitted or has not been carried out, such omission does not invalidate any resolution, act, matter or thing which but for such omission would have been valid.
