- (a) by email sent to members of the relevant electorate; and
- (b) by such additional means as the Electoral Officer thinks fit.

8.4.18 Voting papers shall be distributed to all persons qualified to vote by such means as the Electoral Officer may specify in the Election Notice.

8.4.19 The expression "voting papers" in this Statute 8.4 shall mean:

- (a) a Candidate Statement for each person nominated; and
- (b) a ballot paper in the form or to the effect of Schedule C hereof (completed as appropriate), which may be provided electronically.
- (c) A candidate may also provide a suitable photograph to accompany their candidate statement (suitability to be determined by the Electoral Officer).

8.4.20 (a) In order to be considered valid, a ballot paper must indicate a preference for at least one candidate; preferences for additional candidates may be indicated but are not required. A preference is to be indicated by placing the number one against the name of the most preferred candidate. If the voter wishes to record additional preferences, they may do so by placing the number two against the name of the next preferred candidate, the number three against the name of the next preferred candidate and so on sequentially for some or all of the remaining candidates.

- (b) The ballot may be cast electronically.

- 8.4.21 (a) Subject to paragraph (b), no vote cast after 4:00pm (stated in AEST or AEDT) on the election date shall be examined or counted in the election.
- (b) Should any two of the Chancellor, the Pro-Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor and President and the Secretary form the opinion in respect of a particular election that the operation of any part of this Statute 8.4 has been affected by any strike, lockout or similar action, they may direct that ballot papers received up to a time nominated by them, being no more than seven days after 4:00pm (AEST or AEDT) on the election date, may be examined and counted in the election.
- (c) The votes may be counted electronically at the discretion of the Secretary.
- 8.4.22 The manner of counting the votes shall be as follows:
- (a) Voting instructions will be provided during the election process and only wholly valid ballot papers shall be counted.
- (b) For each vacancy there shall be a process of counting the votes cast ("a ballot").
- (c) Ballots shall be counted using an optional preferential system. The first preference votes for each candidate shall be tallied and if any candidate has a clear majority of votes, that candidate shall be declared elected.
- (d) If, following the count of first preference ballots no candidate has more than half of the votes, the candidate with the fewest votes shall be excluded. This candidate's votes are transferred to the other candidates according to the second preferences of voters for the excluded candidate. If still no candidate has more than half the votes, the candidate who now has the fewest votes shall be excluded and the votes transferred according to the next preference shown. This process continues until one (1) candidate has more than half the total number of formal votes and this candidate shall be declared elected.
- (e) If no candidate receives more than half of the votes, all preferences shall be counted and the candidate with the most votes shall be declared elected.
- (f) If the election is for more than one position, the process of distributing preferences is continued in accordance with (a) and (b) until only the number of candidates required to fill the vacancies remain,
- (g) If there is a tie and the number of tied candidates is greater than the number of vacancies remaining unfilled, the ballots allocated to each such tied candidate shall be compared and the tied candidate with the greatest number of first preference votes shall be elected, or if no one tied candidate has a greater number of first preference votes than any other tied candidate then the tied candidate with the greatest number of second preference votes shall be elected; and so forth until candidates are elected.
- (h) If, following steps (c) to (g) above there is a tied outcome, then the successful candidate is to be determined by the drawing of lots by the Electoral Officer. The name first drawn shall be declared elected.
- 8.4.23 In the event that there are no nominees for the election of staff as identified in Section 8.4.3 and/or Section 8.4.4 of this Statute 8.4 or a casual vacancy arises, the Chair of Academic Board shall appoint a member to fill any vacant position following such consultation as they deem appropriate. Any such person appointed to a committee of the Academic Board in accordance with this Section 8.4.23 shall hold that position as if that person were duly elected in accordance with this Statute 8.4.
- 8.4.24 In the event that there are no nominees for the election of the Student members as identified in Section 8.4.5 of this Statute 8.4 or a casual vacancy arises, then the Chair of Academic Board shall appoint members to fill any vacant position following such consultation as they deem appropriate.

8.4.25 Casual vacancies shall be filled according to the provisions in Section 8.4.23 and/or Section 8.4.24 S appropriate.

8.4.26 A member appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the vacating member's term of office.
