ACU English Test - Melbourne

Information for Candidates

The ACU English test is an internal English test designed to determine whether a student's English level is sufficient to begin further studies at Australian Catholic University. The four skills of Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking are tested.

- The ACU Test is only for students who already have an offer to study at ACU (this does not apply to domestic applications).
- The ACU Test is not accepted in order to meet the English language entry requirement for postgraduate Psychology courses and Bachelor of Nursing and associated double degrees.
- Please refer to: Schedule 3: Evidence of English Language Proficiency in handbook2021 admission-to-coursework-programs-policy .
- The ACU English Test is not recognised by the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) for visa purposes.
- The ACU English Test cannot be used to gain re-entry to a course from which a student has been terminated.
- The ACU English Test cannot be used by students who were unsuccessful in DEEAP or TPP programs.
