

Stay and Succeed FAQs

Who is eligible?

Any current or future resident is welcome to apply for the promotion.

Applicants must also meet the following requirements in order to enter the promotion:

- Applicants must sign a residential tenancy agreement relating to Miguel Cordero Residence.
- Applicants must have proof of enrolment with an Australian university or similar tertiary education facility.

How long is the promotion available for?

This promotion will be available throughout Semester 2 2021.

How to apply

For current residents:

Complete the enquiry form on the website and our team will send you an amended rental agreement for you to sign.

For future residents:

Complete the enquiry form on the website and our team will be in touch with a rental agreement reflecting the chosen booking period (six months or 12 months), as well as any additional paperwork required.

When is the rental credit applied?

Successful applicants will receive eight weeks' rental credit for a residential tenancy agreement (52 weeks) or four weeks' rental credit for a residential tenancy agreement (26 weeks). The subsidy will be applied at the date of the relevant residential tenancy agreement.

Value of the offering

The value of the offering is based on the successful applicant's rooms type as per their residential tenancy agreement