Application for Credit / Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the assessment process for recognising relevant prior learning by matching an applicant's skills, knowledge and experiences to specific admissions requirements, professional requirements and/or unit or course learning and competency outcomes.

Credit may be granted towards a program of Australian Catholic University (ACU) for:

- Formal learning undertaken at an accredited education provider that leads towards an Australian Qualification Framework (AQF) qualification (or equivalent); and/or
- Non-formal learning which takes place through a structured program but does not lead to an officially accredited qualification; and/or
- Informal learning gained through work, social, family, hobby or leisure activities and experiences.

Types of credit

Credit may be in the form of any one or more of the following:

- Specified credit – credit granted for one or more units of the program. Specified Credit will only be granted if the student has previously passed units substantially the same as the unit/s for which Specified Credit is sought.
- Block credit – credit granted for complete sections of a program in an articulation process, equivalent to at least one semester. Block credit will be applied automatically to students with the agreed completed qualification in an articulation pathway but must be granted against a combination of specified and unspecified (elective) units of programs.
- Unspecified credit – credit granted for elective components of programs where previous study does not correspond precisely with components of the program. It cannot be granted in programs which do not contain electives.

How to apply

1. Complete the relevant sections of this application form.
2. Attach the required documentation as set out in Section 3.2 of the Recognition of Prior Learning Procedures including certified documents where stated. Please do not supply original documents as they will not be returned.
3. Lodge the form with your supporting documentation to your School Office for assessment.

When to apply

CR forms should be submitted at least 4 weeks before the commencement of any study period if you require the outcome of the decision before commencement of that study period; or no later than the census date in the first standard study period of your enrolment in the course.

Notification of outcome

Once your CR form has been processed, a notification email will be sent to your ACU Student Email.
